

The Town Needs You NOW!

Would you like to possibly contribute and participate in the making of history for the Town of Southern Pines? If so, then go to the Town of Southern Pines website and read about the varied duties of individuals that serve on the Historic District Commission and be considered for service to fill several vacancies PRESENTLY on this Board. These duties vary in altering or demolishing buildings or structures within the designated historic district, to making requests to the NC Department of Cultural Resources or the NC historic Commission to review or comment on applications for certificates of appropriateness. The historic District Commission also is responsible for investigating and reporting the historic significance of buildings, structures and features of the historic district within prepared boundaries.

If you are interested in being considered for possible service on this Board by the Southern Pines Town Council, please go to the Town website www.southernpines.net and complete a board application, or you may also pick up an application at The Administrative Office, 125 SE Broad Street
